

In the construction of coachwork consideration must also be given to the problems created by movement.

This work is carried out with the latest cutting machines (laser), and surfaces which are modified by heat are removed.

{phocagallery view=category|categoryid=16|imageshadow=shadow1|displaybuttons=1}